a year book — sounds easy — why not — four weeks ago we could have given 101 reasons why not, but now that all the pictures are in all the pages finished, no more rush, rush, rush, all these reasons seem to fade away . . .

. . . The editors and the staff feel that the 1972 torch is the product of creativity, headaches, perseverance, arguments, energy, cooperation, and a lot of time. We have profited from the patience of mr. govoni, the organizational-ability of mr. bennett, and the cooperation of our photographer, pat connolly. finally, we would like to thank everyone who helped to make this book possible.

eases the mind,
and excites the spirit.

last game

last game —
 i feel so old.
 last game
 that's part of me.
 last game
 i'll ever see.
 last game
 that'll mean anything to me.
 last game
 of the year.
 last game
 of my school life here.
 last game
 after so many years.
 last game —
 i'm watching
 i'm waiting

on being a high school senior

dull days of useless comings and goings,
 false smiles,
 slow wasted hours:

these blaspheme the soft spring breeze
 that just now begins to blow

so much time to spare
 that daydreams don't dare
 to be enough for me

i need more:
 things like no walls and narrow halls
 or clocks and bells
 to tell me when to go

but things that let me live as sunrays do:
 dancing through the air
 bound by no wall of warning words, not bound by anything at all except the darkness of the night

 after the sun has gone

— kathy braun

sorry mac you're black

custodians

for his deep understanding of youth and the problems it brings, for his tolerant manner, for his cheerful, warm personality and positive attitude, the senior class, in gratitude and admiration dedicates the 1972 torch to mr. hodge.

as a teacher and as a friend, mr. hodge has helped our class since the days of seventh grade. he has assisted us at class meetings, organized the junior prom, and helped with our dances. we owe a lot of our class success to his guidance, effort and support.

mr. hodge yearns for an educational system that provides unity in extra-curricular activities and studies. students must learn to budget their time between social and academic endeavors.

mr. hodge, the first teacher to advise a class for four years, saw our class as reliable, respectful, and trustworthy. he believes we exceeded any previous class in spirit, finance, and originality and is quite proud of our achievements.

as a biology teacher, mr. hodge expects weekly lab-reports, courtesy, promptness, and respect from all his students. he is devoted to his work and encourages pupils to pursue this field.

the seniors of 1972 dedicate the torch to a man of honor, respect, guidance, and determination. mr. robert hodge, we thank you.

1970-1971

i thank thee just for life,
the chance to live,
to be alive! so great thy gift,
if thou dost nothing give
besides, it is enough,
to breathe thy air,
to walk this mountain sod,
to feel the play of mighty winds,
to look thee in the face,
and call thee god! amen.

death be not proud

death, be not proud, though some have called thee mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so:
for those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow die not, poor death; not yet canst thou kill me.
from rest and sleep, which but thy picture be,
much pleasure, then from thee much more must flow;
and soonest our best men with thee do go —
best of their bones and soul's delivery!
thou'st slave to fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,
and dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell;
and poppy or charms can make us sleep as well
and better than thy stroke. why swell'st thou then?
one short sleep past, we wake eternally,
and death shall be no more; death, thou shalt die!
